Library Telephone Use Policy

Public Use of Library Telephone Policy

Library telephones are for library business use and emergency use only. In the event of an emergency which requires the use of the telephone, the staff person on duty may make a telephone call on the patron's behalf, at a time which is convenient for the staff member.

Incoming Telephone Calls for Library Patrons Policy

Kewaskum Public Library will not accept incoming telephone calls for library patrons or confirm their presence in the library. To protect patrons' right to privacy and for their safety and security, personal information, including whether a person is or has been in the library, will not be made available over the telephone.
